

Wisconsin's No Call List has improved the quality of our life, we want our law to remain as is. Wisconsin citizens we do not want to be exposed to telemarketing from a businesses or its affiliates simply because we have had contact with the business. We need to make certain that consumers, not big telemarketers, are considered first."